TERRY & BARBI FRANKLIN IN CONCERT LOCALLY

Nationally recognized singers/songwriters present a family-focused contemporary Christian concert

Terry & Barbi Franklin will be appearing in concert at (CHURCH, CHURCH ADDRESS), on (DATE) at (TIME). The concert will include songs from their two latest recordings, "Legacy" and "Songs of Love & Marriage," as well as their own Dove Award winning songs and praise and worship selections from their previous CD's. The concert also includes a special segment for children with "Nicky," a ventriloquist character loved by children everywhere.

Through their active concert ministry and marriage seminars, this team strives to encourage integrity, strong family values, and renewed love for God. "For Barbi and me," Terry says, "everything we do is about passing on the hope we've found in an personal relationship with Jesus Christ. Our relationship with Him strengthens our marriage in so many ways, even down to helping us raise our two teenage sons."

During their more than 20 years of ministry, Terry & Barbi Franklin have brought a compelling message through their concerts and marriage seminars into thousands of churches and conference halls, as well as into dozens of countries worldwide, centering around their theme: Inspiring Love in the Home and Revival in the Church. Barbi says, "We have seen God change so many lives, not only in our own families, but at our concerts and seminars. It's such a privilege to be a part of what God is doing to restore and encourage families."

This duo has been privileged to share the platform with some of today's best-known Christian leaders, including Billy Graham, Dr. Adrian Rogers, Dr. Jack Hayford, Coach Bill McCartney and Promise Keepers, Jim Cymbala, and the Brooklyn Tabernacle, Focus on the Family, Dr. David Jeremiah, Don Wildmon and the American Family Association, Kay Arthur, and Gary Smalley, among many others.

As songwriters, they have had noteworthy success winning Dove Awards and award nominations. Artists across a wide range, from Glen Campbell to The Brooklyn Tabernacle Choir, have recorded many of their songs.

Both of the Franklins are accomplished singers and songwriters with years of experience. Terry began singing as a teenager in his hometown of Miami, Florida, and for a brief time, from 1992 to 1994, joined the Gaither Vocal Band for their concerts and a few recordings. Together, the Franklins appeared in the Gaithers' concerts, as well as their Praise Gatherings and Jubilate's. Barbi grew up as the youngest singer of the internationally-known Musical Murk Family from Wheaton, Illinois. Before marrying Terry, she traveled for 18 years ministering throughout North and South America, Europe, and Israel.

This team has produced ten recordings and authored the book, "Reviving Your Romance: 40 Days to a Better Marriage," a concisely targeted devotional for married couples, released in 2006. They have two sons, Tyler and Travis, who join them occasionally.

Terry & Barbi Franklin are based in Nashville, Tennessee.
